MAHESHWARI MAHASABHA OF NORTH AMERICA ESTABLISHES A SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM AT IVHU

August 26, 2008

Maheshwari Mahasabha of North America (www.mmna.org) has announced today, an establishment of funds for scholarship to students at International Vedic Hindu University (www.ivhu.edu)

MMNA in its Board meeting decided to take this initiative to encourage and actively promote descendents of Hindu Immigrants of North America to allow them to connect to their Indian roots by systematically acquiring knowledge of their rich heritage. The scholarship is open to all Hindu Students who pursue masters and/or doctoral program at IVHU and who meet certain other criteria of age, residency and heritage, education etc.

“We want our next generation to know and be proud of their rich heritage and be able to converse knowledgeably with their American counterparts”, said Dr. Mona Khaitan of MMNA who herself received her doctorate from IVHU. “We very much welcome this initiative of MMNA. It is truly commendable. and we hope it will inspire other organizations and individuals in promoting a study of Hindu culture, traditions, philosophies and practices”, said IVHU VP, Abhinav Dwivedi.

MMNA can be contacted at www.mmna.org .
